Irreplaceable

A six-year-old called his mother from his friend Charlie's house and confessed he had broken a lamp when he threw a football in their living room. "But, Mom," he said, brightening, "you don't have to worry about buying another one. Charlie's mother said it was irreplaceable."

There are a lot of things and people in life that are "Irreplaceable." I have an old hammer (and it shows its age) that belonged to my dad who died in 1985. It may look like inventory for a garage sale to you, but to me it's priceless. I have a Houston Oilers Tee-Shirt that my son bought for me at a memorabilia show three weeks before he passed away in 2012. My daughter-in-law told me he intended to give it to me as a gift because I grew up loving the Oilers. I have it framed in my office (Total value probably $40). To me, though, there is not enough money in the world that would entice me to sell it. I believe you get the idea!

Consider then your most prized possession - your soul; that part of you which is like God and eternal (See Genesis 1:26-27). Now listen to Jesus: "For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?" (Matthew 16:26). Please take care of that which is truly Irreplaceable! Take care.

A Message from Ulbert...

Let's Meditate A Little....

God set the church in the world; the devil struggles to put the world into the church and some Christians even help him.

We must hold in high regard the believers who strive to change for them; Instead of censuring others.

* Being a citizen of the Kingdom of Christ; is to be partakers of the love of God.

* Be a worker in the vineyard of the Lord; is to enjoy a divine salary.

* To be a true Christian, is to keep his word his rules and laws within the kingdom that is the church.

Pray:

God, allow each believer to share your love with all my brothers who suffer for being Christians.
