Chris' Corner...

1 Corinthians 4:1-5

1 This is how one should regard us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. 2 Moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found faithful. 3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by any human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself. 4 For I am not aware of anything against myself, but I am not thereby acquitted. It is the Lord who judges me. 5 Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his commendation from God.

No matter how hard we try we will never please everyone, especially if we are in any position of authority. You could be a parent, a manager at your job, or even a coach and you will find someone who disagrees with you. Because of this we might find ourselves changing what we do and who we are to appease others. Remember though, we are not held to the standards of the world but to God's standards.

We should be more concerned with what God thinks and less about those around us. God should be the one who influences how we think, speak, and act. In doing this we will have to make some difficult decisions, some that make us unpopular among men, but the judgment of God Is our ultimate concern. If we do so our paths will be clear and our reward will be eternal.
