Red Sea Rules

Michael Hursey’s sermon last Sunday morning was on “Red Sea Rule #8”. God, through Moses, gave the Israelites 10 rules to observe in following his commands and overcoming the enemy. Exodus 14 provides us these rules we can use for Christian living today. Here are two:

Red Sea Rule #1

Realize that God means for you to be where you are.

Exodus 14:1-2 (NKJV)

<sup>2</sup> "Speak to the children of Israel, that they turn and camp before Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, opposite Baal Zephon; you shall camp before it by the sea.

Red Sea Rule #2

Be more concerned for God’s glory than for your relief.

Exodus 14:3-4 (NKJV)

<sup>3</sup> For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, "They are bewildered by the land; the wilderness has closed them in." <sup>4</sup> Then I will harden Pharaoh's heart, so that he will pursue them; and I will gain honor over Pharaoh and over all his army, that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD." And they did so.

Trivia Questions

Last Week's Question:

How many times is it recorded in the Old Testament about people crossing a body of water on dry land? Example: Moses & Israelites crossing the Red Sea. Name the occasions.

Answer: 4

The Israelites crossed the Red Sea with Moses and the Jordan River with Joshua in Joshua 3. Also Elijah and Elisha crossed the Jordan so that Elijah could be taken away by God in 2 Kings 2, and then Elisha crossed by himself on his way home from seeing Elijah taken up in 2 Kings 2.

New Question:

King David married Michal, the daughter of Saul. Before marrying Michal, it was announced that David would marry someone else – who was first announced betrothed to David, and what happened to her since they did not marry?
