“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice....do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind...”

The New Man!

A fellow arrived at a church picnic with both of his ears bright red. A friend asked, “What happened to your ears?” “Terrible thing,” said the man. “While I was ironing my shirt, the phone rang, and well, I picked up the iron instead of the phone.” “That’s terrible,” said the friend sympathetically, “but what happened to the other ear?” “He Called back.”

Sometimes lessons are hard to learn. Often, we go back time and time again to the very things that hurt and destroy us. The apostle Paul even said, “For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice” (Romans 7:19). The battle with the evil one (the Devil) seems to be never ending (See Ephesians 6:10-12).

Regarding this struggle and worldly practices, we find these instructions: “But you have not so learned Christ, if indeed you have heard Him and have been taught by Him, as the truth is in Jesus: that you put off, concerning your former conduct, the old man which grows corrupt according to the deceitful lusts, and be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and that you put on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness” (Ephesians 4:20-24).

May we continually be “The New Man.” Take Care! Have a Great Week!

Chris' Corner...

Romans 12:3-8

3 For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. 4 For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, 5 so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. 6 Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; 7 if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; 8 the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness.

Last weekend we had our ACTION youth rally. We had over 70 kids from six congregations come together for worship, lessons, fellowship, and a service project with Feeding South Florida. It was a big production that was only possible because of numerous members from this church. Thank you to those who helped with housing/transporting kids, donating/serving food, decorating/clean up, video and sound, registration and t-shirts, and promotion. There are many other ways people helped that I have not mentioned, and I thank you as well. Without your help this could not happen. I'm not just thanking you for your help, but for making the youth of West Broward a priority.

Our theme verse was from 1 Corinthians 11:1 where Paul says, "Be imitators of me as I am of Christ." You truly have been imitators of Christ, and because of this the teens have been uplifted and God has been glorified.
