MOM!

Shirley Ratcliff in an article called, "Kids of the Kingdom," said, "When our daughter, Kathy, was participating in a parenting class at her church, she explained to her 6-year-old daughter, Kayla, that she was taking a course to help make her a better mommy. The next Sunday, after church, Kayla became upset and had a tantrum because she was not getting her way. Both parents tried to calm her. But with tears streaming down her face and in a loud voice, Kayla announced to her mother, 'You told me you were taking a course to make you a better mommy. Well, it's not working!'"

Today is Mother's Day in America. I am praying that all of you mothers and grandmothers and great-grandmothers ... are having an amazing day. You deserve so very much more than you often receive. You are the glue that holds families together (See 2 Timothy 1:5). Even when times are difficult, when pain is present, your calming influence and loving actions keep us centered. You make happy occasions even happier. Thank you for WHO you are!

Godly women who love their husbands and children are special to God (See Titus 2:1-11 and Proverbs 31). Therefore, these women are to be exceptional in our eyes as well! May God's blessing remain on you! Take care!

Deuteronomy 10:12-13

12 "And now, Israel, what does the Lord your God require of you, but to fear the Lord your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, 13 and to keep the commandments and statutes of the Lord, which I am commanding you today for your good?"

We all have certain expectations from different people in our lives. Likewise others also have expectations from us. When these expectations aren't met it can be frustrating, disappointing, and usually there are consequences. Communicating expectations and standards is important to help avoid these results. God has expectations concerning how we should live and He spells them out in many different ways through His Word and Son.

One of those ways is with lists. Some of the lists include The Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:1-17), The Beatitudes (Matthew 5:1-12), and The Fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23). When it comes to specific topics and situations we can start with Matthew chapters 5-7 and find many more answers throughout Paul's letters. For those that relate to stories, Jesus teaches with many parables.

The Bible is also full of many examples of great men and women of faith that show how we are to act. The best example of course was Jesus, who God wants us to follow and have a relationship with. Because of the examples and expectations God has laid before us we now have no excuse as to how we should think and act. God has made His expectations clear, but we have to do our part and try to meet them as best we can. If we do He will be glorified and our reward will be great.
