Advice From Kids

1. Never trust a dog to watch your food. - Patrick, age 10.
2. When your dad is mad and asks you, "Do I look stupid?" don't answer him. - Michael, 14.
3. Never tell your mom her diet's not working. - Michael, 14.
4. When your mom is mad at your dad, don't let her brush your hair. - Taylia, 11.
5. Never try to baptize a cat. - Eileen, 8.

Everyday life is filled with events that teach and motivate us concerning future behavior. Listen to Proverbs 8:1-4 – “Does not wisdom cry out, and understanding lift up her voice? She takes her stand on the top of the high hill, beside the way, where the paths meet. She cries out by the gates, at the entry of the city, at the entrance of the doors: “To you, O men, I call, and my voice is to the sons of men.” Solomon is saying that wisdom can be gained everywhere! How closely do you pay attention to the lessons of life?

Proverbs 9:10 says, “The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.” Reverence for and respect of God’s majesty, and a true concept of His wrath, and His Love and Grace (See Ephesians 2:1-10), are the first steps toward knowledge, wisdom and understanding. It is then that the lessons of life (found in His Word or through life experiences) become profoundly evident and life changing!

The question is, “Are we paying attention?” Take care.

Genesis 39:7-10

7 And after a time his master's wife cast her eyes on Joseph and said, "Lie with me." 8 But he refused and said to his master's wife, "Behold, because of me my master has no concern about anything in the house, and he has put everything that he has in my charge. 9 He is not greater in this house than I am, nor has he kept back anything from me except you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness and sin against God?" 10 And as she spoke to Joseph day after day, he would not listen to her, to lie beside her or to be with her.

2 Samuel 11:2-5

2 It happened, late one afternoon, when David arose from his couch and was walking on the roof of the king's house, that he saw from the roof a woman bathing; and the woman was very beautiful. 3 And David sent and inquired about the woman. And one said, "Is not this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?" 4 So David sent messengers and took her, and she came to him, and he lay with her. (Now she had been purifying herself from her uncleanness.) Then she returned to her house. 5 And the woman conceived, and she sent and told David, "I am pregnant."

Two men, two similar situations, two different choices. Although we might not have the same decisions to make, every day we have tough choices to make. We usually know what is the right thing to do, but we still must decide to actually do it. If we trust in God and know that He will take care of us, difficult choices in our lives will become easier and we will be blessed.
