

Summertime!

Summertime! Although we are technically still in spring (Summer solstice is June 21st @ 6:51 am), June typically marks the beginning of summer activities. Many are looking forward to vacations, days at the beach or relaxing in backyards and by pools with friends and family. I'm looking forward to Disney World with some of my grandkids and then later in the summer a camping trip with most of my grandchildren. These and other events are moments when life-long memories are created. It is my prayer that you and yours have a safe, happy and memorable summer.

Now with summer come a few things about which we must be on our guard. First, history confirms that some people have gone away for extended periods and have gotten out of the practice of attending church services. Then, upon returning, it becomes a challenge getting back into the swing of things. Relaxing in bed or participating in some outdoor activity becomes very appealing on Sunday mornings. My challenge to you is to continue to "Remember" the Lord on the Lord's Day when you are away. Every Sunday people from other cities, states and sometimes countries bless our assemblies. They are determined to "Remember" and never forget. You can be one of those people as you travel. You can be a blessing to the brethren who meet in that location. Then when you get home, you just keep on keeping on!

And second, it never fails that when temperatures rise clothes seem to fall. In the last 50 years America and the world has become more revealing. Everywhere you turn these days men and women are showing more skin. And it's not just in the area of skin! With the advent of spandex and the like, body features that should be kept private are highlighted for everyone to see. The problem with all of this is morality and decency is being challenged. With nothing left to the imagination, lustful thoughts are given the opportunity to run free. The word "Decent" in scripture means "To draw attention to ones self." When we draw attention that leads to ungodly thinking in connection to that person's observation, then we share the responsibility.

Remember always, and especially this summer, that you are an official representative of Jesus in the world (See 2 Corinthians 5:14-21). As an "Ambassador" you declare Him! So, have fun, but remember WHO you are!

Our Summer Series begins this Wednesday, June 4th! Bill Weaver from 6th Street church of Christ will speak to us about Being Prayer Warriors so we can Save Our Families. See you there!
