I’m Coming Back!

Today is the Lord’s Day. It is the day that has been set aside for His people to gather for praise and adoration of God, the remembering of our Savior and for the encouragement and edification of one another. It is a wonderful privilege to be here and to praise God together. You don’t realize how precious and important this privilege is until you, through illness or whatever, have it taken away. It is a joy being with God’s people!

As most of you know, I had a heart attack and then quadruple By-Pass Surgery (Open Heart) at the end of April. I’m still in the recovery/Rehab process. I want to thank all of you most especially for your prayers. James says, “The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much” (James 5:16). To have so many righteous people here at West Broward and all over the world praying for me is humbling. I am so thankful that God has heard those prayers and extended my life. I intend to use every moment to honor Him!

I also want to thank so many of you for cards, calls, texts, emails, visits, food and even help around the house and help with my medical care. You are incredible. Additionally, I want to thank all of those who have stepped up and filled my duties over the last two months. Some of you have taught classes, some have preached and others have done everyday ministry things. Please know that my heart is moved by your love for the Lord and your willingness to help.

And now to some very good news – at least I hope you consider it good news. My doctor has cleared me to resume my pulpit duties the first Sunday in July (That is the 5th). He told me that when I reach 30 minutes on the treadmill in rehab that we would talk about it. Well, I’m there and he has agreed. Please spread the news. Let’s make this a new beginning. I know that’s what it is for me. Take care. I love you all!

Chris' Corner...

Psalm 139:7-10 "Where can I go from your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence? If I go up to the heavens, you are there; if I make my bed in the depths, you are there. If I rise on the wings of the dawn, if I settle on the far side of the sea, even there your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast."

Several years ago when I was on my first of four mission trips to Honduras I learned something that I am reminded of today: GOD IS EVERYWHERE!

Flying down to Honduras was a bit nerve-racking and scary, but once I was down there and working with the church one thing was evident: God was present. I saw Him when I was building relationships with the kids, building houses, working in the medical clinics, and worshiping with the members of the local church. Now I read about how He was everywhere, but seeing it firsthand, away from my home, was something else. Since Ellie and I have moved down here I am reminded of my time in Honduras, and that God is down here in South Florida, too.

My encouragement to you is to look for God no matter where you go. You don't need to leave the country to find Him. If you seek Him, you will find Him. And even better, He fights for you, no matter where you are or the situation. Sometimes we can feel alone in this world, but remember that where you go, there He is.
