Are You Preparing?

An old story has a sailor shipwrecked on an island. He was seized by the natives, carried to the village and placed on a throne. The native custom was to make some man king for a year. Soon, however, he discovered that after their year was over, all preceding kings were banished to their own island where they eventually starved to death. But this guy was smart. On the island that would become his, he put carpenters to work making boats and building houses. He had farmers transplanting fruit trees and growing crops. When the year was over, he was ousted to an island of abundance!

What a lesson! Previous kings lived it up, not considering the approaching end. The sailor, on the other hand, prepared for when his time would be over! This reminds me of Matthew 24:44 and Matthew 6:19-21. “Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect” ... “Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

“The LORD bless you and keep you; The LORD make His face shine upon you, And be gracious to you; The LORD lift up His countenance upon you, And give you peace” (Numbers 6:24-26).

Job 2:7-10

7 So Satan went out from the presence of the Lord and struck Job with loathsome sores from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. 8 And he took a piece of broken pottery with which to scrape himself while he sat in the ashes. 9 Then his wife said to him, "Do you still hold fast your integrity? Curse God and die." 10 But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women would speak. Shall we receive good from God, and shall we not receive evil?" In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Job had it all. He had health, wealth, land, livestock, and a family. He also knew where it came from. He was happy to receive the blessings from God but also remained faithful when those things began to disappear. Even when his own wife told him to curse God so he could die and not suffer anymore he trusted in the Lord.

God is not a genie. Our relationship with Him should not be one-sided where we just receive things. It has to be more. When we receive blessings from above we should rejoice and give thanks. Also, when we run into hard times we need to rejoice in the Lord and know He has a plan and that He will deliver us from our troubles. It's easy to be happy and joyful when things are going well. Anyone can do that. As Christians, we are called to be more. We are called to stand out and be different from this world. People will notice if we are grateful in the bad times just as much as we are in the good times. Through that doors can be opened and God will be glorified.
