Vacation Bible School

Well the time has arrived! Vacation Bible School is here! Many people have labored many hours to make this year's school a success. We thank each and every one of you.

We are actually kicking off VBS this year tonight at 6:00 pm with a Worship/Devotional followed by an Ice Cream Social. This is an attempt to reach out to the families of attendees. Please come and support this effort. If you would like to assist with Ice Cream and/or goodies, please See Chris or Ellie Radcliffe. Let's all make a good showing so that we can make an impact.

VBS begins Monday morning at 9:00 am. We will finish each day through Wednesday at 12:00 noon. On Wednesday night at 6:00 we will host a hamburger and hotdog cookout for all the VBS attendees and their families. This will be followed by a devotional in the Auditorium. Please come and participate. We need to let everyone know how truly special they are. If you can help with this effort, see Doug Horton or Chris Radcliffe.

And by all means, PRAY! Take care!

Psalm 147:5

Great is our Lord, and mighty in power; His understanding is infinite.

Psalm 139:4

For there is not a word on my tongue, but behold, O Lord, You know it altogether.

1 John 3:20

For if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things.

God is omniscient, which means He is all knowing. I'm sure we all know of someone who may think and act like they are omniscient. Or perhaps we know a few people who know a lot. But there is only one who is all knowing, and that is God. One of the main reasons He knows all is because He created all. His understanding and knowledge of His children is so great because He loves us so much. Just like a loving parent, they know their kids the most because they love and care about them so much. Children are so valuable that their parents put so much time, attention, and love towards them.

If God knows everything about us and what we need, then why do we need to pray to Him? It is true that He knows all of our problems and needs, but God wants us to realize what we need and our problems. God wants us to say and acknowledge that we are in need and that He is the only one to meet our needs. Once we confess our problems and acknowledge that God is the one to fix it, then the healing can begin. God loves us so much and knows all about us and our struggles, but it is up to us to turn to Him and ask for help. God already knows us so well; through prayer and reading His word we can get to know him better.
