

Take the Warnings Seriously!!

When Dave Boon first saw the avalanche that swept his car over a guardrail on Interstate 40 in Denver, Colorado, it was only a puff of powder. "Not even a second later, a freight train hit us," Boon said. He was traveling with his wife, June, and Gary Martinez, thirteen, on their way to a youth group ski trip. "We were talking about avalanches and how there was so much snow and stuff. Then we turned the corner and saw some white powder, and it slammed us into the guardrail." The wall of snow knocked the car over the rail and caused it to roll hundreds of feet down a steep mountain slope. It came to a stop upside down and pointing back uphill. Fortunately, Boon and his wife were well trained. After clearing an airway and freeing himself from the seat belt, Boon was able to exit the car along with Martinez and then cut his wife free from her restraints. Despite bumps, bruises, and scrapes, none of the three required hospitalization. For Boon, the experience was a reminder that warnings and hints of danger need to be respected. "The signs read, 'Avalanche Area, No Stopping,'" he said. "We've driven by that place hundreds of times. We've skied avalanche chutes, worn beepers, always carried an avalanche shovel. We've seen avalanches. But in our wildest dreams, we never imagined getting hit in a car by one" — Patrick O'Driscoll, "Avalanche Sends Travelers Tumbling," USA Today.

The Bible is filled with "Warnings" designed for our benefit. Essentially, God is guiding us through the minefields of life (2 Timothy 3:16-17). For example ...

- "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. You will know them by their fruits" (Matthew 7:15-16).
- "Wine is a mocker and beer a brawler; whoever is led astray by them is not wise" (Proverbs 20:1).
- "Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, envy, murders, drunkenness, revelries, and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in time past, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God (Galatians 5:19-21).
- "Truly, these times of ignorance God overlooked, but now commands all men everywhere to repent, because He has appointed a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness by the Man whom He has ordained. He has given assurance of this to all by raising Him from the dead" (Acts 17:30-31).
- "Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness, looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be dissolved, being on fire, and the elements will melt with fervent heat?" (2 Peter 3:11-12).
- "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming" (Matthew 25:13).

These are just a few of the very many "Warnings" in scripture designed to help us. All areas of life are covered – marriage and family, business, character and morality, worship, salvation, etc. God has given us everything that we need pertaining to life and godliness (See 2 Peter 1:3). May we always be ready by taking the warnings seriously! Take care.
