Chris' Corner...

Luke 6:27-31 "But I tell you who hear me: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. If someone strikes you on one cheek, turn to him the other also. If someone takes your cloak, do not stop him from taking your tunic. Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what belongs to you, do not demand it back. Do to others as you would have them do to you."

Such words have turned many away from Christ. Jesus wasn't talking about having affection for your enemies; he was instructing us how to treat them daily with love. Doing this takes a conscious effort. Loving our enemies means acting in their best interest. We can pray for them, and we can think of ways to help them. Jesus loves the whole world, even though most of the world is in rebellion against God. Jesus asks us to follow his example by loving our enemies. Give your enemies the same respect as you desire for yourself.

One problem we have with this thinking is that our pride gets in the way. We want our enemies to go through what we have gone through, and feel what we feel, so we seek revenge in an effort to even the score. We have to remember that is not our place, it is God's (Romans 12:17-19). Vengeance is God's job; loving God and others is our job.
