We Are Blessed!

It is amazing to me how often we take for granted the simple blessings that are from God. This morning (Monday) I had the privilege of accompanying four of my grandchildren to Dania Beach to watch the sun rise. It was an experience that I think they will remember for a long time. The wind was blowing, the waves were crashing, the birds were singing, the air was fresh and the sun was indeed like “a bridegroom coming out of his chamber” (See Psalm 19:1-6). The majesty and glory of our Creator was on full display. It was a very good morning!

Perhaps as God’s people we should pause a little more and think in terms of the larger, more eternal picture. Psalm 46:10 says, “Be still, and know that I am God.” It is healthy for us to consider how blessed we truly are by Him who is omnipotent, omniscient and omnipresent. When we suspend our busyness even for a brief moment and consider Him, our lives seem to make a lot more sense. By doing this very thing, the psalmist concluded Psalm 46 with, “The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge” (v:11).

James says, “Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights” (James 1:17). May we never forget how we are truly blessed! Take care.

Luke 12:4-7

4 "I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do. 5 But I will warn you whom to fear: fear him who, after he has killed, has authority to cast into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him! 6 Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? And not one of them is forgotten before God. 7 Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows.

In these verses Jesus tells us whom to fear and at the same time to not fear at all. It might sound confusing at first, but really it should give us hope. Sometimes we worry too much about pleasing others and trying to live up to the standards of the world. Jesus puts things into perspective when He points out the limited power of man vs. the ultimate power of God. As Christians we can have hope knowing that the same God is on our side.

These verses also show how valuable we are to God. He remembers and takes care of all things on the earth, even the sparrows. We are worth so much more to God than sparrows; therefore He will take care of us even more. This also means God remembers us. He remembers that we are lost and need a way back to Him. His love for us is so strong He was willing to sacrifice His own son so that we may have a chance at Heaven. Knowing God values and loves us that much, and knowing we are following in His ways, should bring us the ultimate peace. So fear not, God loves you!
