Labor Day!

Labor Day in America is tomorrow. “It honors the American labor movement and the contributions that workers have made to the strength, prosperity, laws and well-being of the country” (Wikipedia). A review of American history no doubt reveals the ingenuity and power of the American labor force. When good, moral, honest people put their minds and bodies to it, nothing seems impossible. Just think about the extraordinary accomplishments of the last 150 years – medicine, travel, technology, communication, etc. To God we offer glory and praise!

God intended from the very beginning that man should work. Especially when God is first and foremost in life, work becomes a joy and a benefit both personally and regarding the community, nation and world. I think the psalmist said it very well. He said, “And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us, and establish the work of our hands for us; yes, establish the work of our hands” (Psalm 90:17). When man applies himself, and takes advantage of the resources God has provided, great things happen.

God's intention is that every person engage in labor. “For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: If anyone will not work, neither shall he eat” (2 Thessalonians 3:10). Being a worker blesses you with the necessities you need to sustain your life and it provides you with the means to be a blessing to others! It brings to you a sense of contentment and accomplishment that only comes from the concept of “a job well-done.” Essentially, the ones who seem to be the happiest are the ones who have a sense of purpose (especially spiritual purpose) and who labor accordingly. The question is, “Are you honoring God by being a worker for Him – both in the spiritual and physical realms? Think it over. Take care!

Chris' Corner.....

2 Corinthians 1:3-7

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, 4 who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. 5 For as we share abundantly in Christ's sufferings, so through Christ we share abundantly in comfort too. 6 If we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; and if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which you experience when you patiently endure the same sufferings that we suffer. 7 Our hope for you is unshaken, for we know that as you share in our sufferings, you will also share in our comfort.

As new parents Ellie and I are finding out our strengths and weaknesses when it comes to taking care of Corey. When he needs to be entertained, or sometimes distracted, I am naturally good at that. But when Corey is upset and needs to be comforted Ellie is excellent at meeting his needs. This is something that Corey himself has picked up on and looks to Ellie when he is upset.

The same thing happens as we grow spiritually. Whenever we go through struggles and pain we have certain people we turn to for comfort. Family and friends are great for making us feel better when we are struggling, but we must not forget to go to God. God is best at comforting us because He knows us best. He knows the pain and heartache we go through daily and desires for us to turn to Him in those times. God is our comfort and our refuge, and as earthly parents want the best for their children, God wants the best for us.
