A Different Mindset!

One day a visitor leaned on a fence at an old farm watching the farmer plow the ground using the power of a mule. After a while, the visitor said to the farmer, “I’d like to make a suggestion. You could save a lot of work and time by training that mule to respond to ‘Gee’ and ‘Haw’ instead of tugging on those lines all day.” The farmer pulled out a cloth and wiped the sweat from his brow. “I reckon you’re right, but this animal kicked me about five years ago and I ain’t spoke to him since.”

Holding grudges! It’s a common thing in our world. Something happens or something is said. Feelings get hurt. Anger boils. The situation is never addressed. Feelings remain, but are suppressed. Resentment, bitterness, animosity and hostility build. Dislike turns to hate. Hate then dulls the heart. Relationships are ruined. Opportunities are missed. Lives are affected. And souls can be lost!

There is a better way. “Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice. And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you” (Ephesians 4:31-32). Essentially, develop a mindset and lifestyle that is different from the world (Read Ephesians 4:17-5:2). Take care!

Chris' Corner.....

Romans 14:15-23

15 For if your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. By what you eat, do not destroy the one for whom Christ died. 16 So do not let what you regard as good be spoken of as evil. 17 For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. 18 Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. 19 So then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding. 20 Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for anyone to make another stumble by what he eats. 21 It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that causes your brother to stumble. 22 The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves. 23 But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin.

There are a lot of things in this world that we must avoid in order to follow Christ correctly. Many things can distract us, corrupt us, and cause us to stumble. Equally as important as avoiding these devices is making sure that we are not the cause of sin in others' lives. This requires us to consider others' feelings and needs before ours, and continually pursuing peace. This will bring accountability to our words and actions and hopefully bring others and us closer to God.
