Light Over Darkness!

Evil once again has raised its ugly head. A mass shooting in Las Vegas has left many families grieving and others tending to the wounded. People all across the country and the world are horrified by the very thought of a human being systematically and coldly doing something like this to other human beings. We cry out for understanding. We demand solutions to this growing problem. We crave a safer, better world for our children and grandchildren.

Jesus said, “And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil” (John 3:19). Men have been choosing darkness (evil) over light (God’s way) for a very long time. For those trying to “Walk in the light” (1 John 1:7), understanding the motives of hateful, evil people is somewhat difficult. We love our fellowman (regardless of race, background, etc.), and we desire nothing but the very best for them (See Mark 12:30-31). We reason, “Why can’t all of us unconditionally care for one another?”

The only thing we can do in the face of such evil is to keep loving. Keep serving. Keep praying. Keep living. Keep teaching (by word and example). In this way, we can do our part to help the light (Jesus, John 8:12) to be in the hearts of everyone we meet. Take care!

Chris' Corner.....

2 Corinthians 5:16-21

16 From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. 17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. 18 All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; 19 that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. 20 Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. 21 For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

Ever since sin was brought into the world in Genesis there has been an ongoing divide between God and man. Sin is a wedge that constantly drives us apart, and although we don't deserve it God set up a plan to reconcile us. Through Christ's sacrifice and the act of baptism we now have a chance of restoring the perfect relationship that was originally intended for us.

The beautiful thing about God's plan of salvation and ministry of reconciliation is that we can become a new creation. Our sins can be blotted out and we can be brought back to God even though we are the cause of the separation. God has done His part in the plan but we must do our part. We must turn from the evils of this world and run towards His righteousness so we can be reunited in Heaven.
