The Election!

If you haven't heard, there is an election on November 8th. This election cycle has been one to be remembered (or forgotten might be a better statement). Many of you have spoken with me about what to do, seeing that you strongly disagree with the morality of the candidates that are running. The only thing I know to say is, remain true to your Christian convictions when you enter the polling place and cast your vote. Select a candidate that you believe will best uphold biblical/moral principles in the long-term. This requires you to get to know what they truly stand for in relation to moral truths. And above all, pray about your decision and for whoever is selected.

Moreover, it is my prayer that we will never allow politics to divide God's house, God's people. My daddy used to say that religion and politics were volatile subjects - and he was right. Of course both areas can have a great and helpful conclusion if God's Word is applied (See Psalm 119:105). Far too many times people want to separate biblical truth from traditional or cultural beliefs - be it politics or religion or business, etc. May we never be guilty, in any way or application, of separating ourselves from who we are in Christ! May we be God's "Ambassadors" 100% of the time (See 2 Corinthians 5:14-21) - in and out of the polling booth or the board room! Take care.

Luke 14:28-33

28 For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? 29 Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, 30 saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.' 31 Or what king, going out to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? 32 And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. 33 So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple.

Ellie and I recently transformed one of the rooms in our house into a nursery. Before we did anything we had to consider a lot of different things - space, design, cost, time, and effort were all factored into our decision as to how we wanted the room to look. We knew that it would take a lot of work, but we (mainly Ellie) saw the big picture and we knew it was worth it.

The same goes when it comes to being a follower of Christ. We have to weigh the cost and see what we are willing to sacrifice for the Lord. Time, money, and popularity are just some of the things that we might have to give up. In other places around the world people have to give up so much more. Remember, if we see the big picture we will see that being a Christian is worth it now and when Jesus returns.
