A Generous Person!

“You can always give without loving, but you can never love without giving” ~ Amy Carmichael (1867 - 1951).

Giving of oneself in the truest spiritual sense is unquestionably linked to loving the recipient of the giving. John 3:16 says, “For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.” God’s gift of Jesus is directly connected to the love He has for every person. Paul put it this way: “But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us” (Romans 5:8).

The question is, “Do we love others the way God loves us?” Jesus said, “A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another” (John 13:34-35). How seriously do we take this command? God’s love in your heart will indeed make you a generous person! Take care!

Chris' Corner.....

Matthew 5:43-48

43 "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' 44 But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, 45 so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. 46 For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? 47 And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? 48 You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Luke 22:49-51

49 And when those who were around him saw what would follow, they said, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?" 50 And one of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. 51 But Jesus said, "No more of this!" And he touched his ear and healed him.

This year we really have not seen enough of people loving their enemies, especially when it comes to the election. We must not forget Jesus' word and actions during this time. He talked the talk and walked the walk. As followers of Christ we must do the same. We must show love to all who our neighbors, even if they don't have the same views we do. Jesus faced many people who didn't agree with him and even hated him, and his response wasn't the same kind of hate. Instead, he loved them even more. This can be difficult but it's important because we represent Christ, and that's what the world needs now more than ever.
