

Happy New Year!

Country music superstar Brad Paisley once said, "Tomorrow, is the first blank page of a 365 page book. Write a good one."

Lord willing, 2015 will begin in a few days. Resolutions will be made. Hope for a new beginning will encourage many. Positive change will be the goal for most people. The New Year seems to be a time for moving forward, getting it right or finally remedying problems that have plagued us for a long time. There always seems to be a renewed energy attached to January 1st.

It is my prayer that you will make every day of 2015 a good one. Each and every day that we are alive is filled with so many wonderful possibilities. Every day is a gift from the Lord, resulting in joy and appreciation, especially for the follower of Jesus (See Psalm 118:24 and 1 Thessalonians 5:18). The disciple of Christ tends to keep his/her eyes and heart open regarding opportunities to honor and glorify God the Father and Jesus His Son and our Savior (See Ephesians 3:21 and 1 Corinthians 6:19-20). As Christians, we recognize that each new day is a blessing from our Creator. Thanks be to God that He is the God of starting over (See John 8:11).

I want to encourage every one of you to make each day a new chapter in a glorious book called, "Your Life." As you face struggle and adversity, remember what Paul said – "I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength" (Philippians 4:13). As you encounter grief and sadness, keep in mind that your Father is "The God of all comfort" (See 2 Corinthians 1:3-4). And as you meet with success and happiness, do not forget to pause and thank and praise Him from whom all blessing flow (See Colossians 3:16-17 and 2 Peter 1:3). Happy New Year!

Preaching Minister
